Plaintiff filed his Complaint in this matter on August 30, 2012. (Filing No. 1.) Plaintiff has been given leave to proceed in forma pauperis. (Filing No. 6.) The court now conducts an initial review of Plaintiff's claims to determine whether summary dismissal is appropriate under 28 U.S.C. § 1915\(e\)\(2\).

I. SUMMARY OF COMPLAINT

Plaintiff filed his Complaint against Eric Shinseki, the Secretary of the Department of Veterans Affairs ("VA"). Liberally construed, Plaintiff sues Defendant for discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. He alleges that he was employed as a housekeeping aide at the VA. On May 9, 2011, ICU Nurse Susan Needham ("Needham") wiped a white towel across the floor of a patient's room in order to determine its cleanliness. Plaintiff alleges the nurse's actions violated VA procedures and protocol. Thereafter, Needham alleged "spurious charges" against him. Plaintiff alleges Needham's actions were "egregious" and "discriminatory." (Filing No. 1 at CM/ECF pp. 2-3.)

Plaintiff does not allege what relief he seeks. He states he previously sought relief from the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC"), which denied relief. (Id. at CM/ECF pp. 2-3.)

II. APPLICABLE LEGAL STANDARDS ON INITIAL REVIEW

The court is required to review in forma pauperis complaints to determine whether summary dismissal is appropriate. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915\(e\)\(2\). The court must dismiss a complaint or any portion thereof that states a frivolous or malicious claim, that fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or that seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915\(e\)\(2\)\(B\).

Pro se plaintiffs must set forth enough factual allegations to “nudge[] their claims across the line from conceivable to plausible,” or “their complaint must be dismissed” for failing to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 569-70 (2007); see also Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) (“A claim has facial plausibility when the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged.”). Regardless of whether a plaintiff is represented or is appearing pro se, the plaintiff’s complaint must allege specific facts sufficient to state a claim. See Martin v. Sargent, 780 F.2d 1334, 1337 (8th Cir. 1985). However, a pro se plaintiff’s allegations must be construed liberally. Burke v. North Dakota Dep’t of Corr. & Rehab., 294 F.3d 1043, 1043-44 (8th Cir. 2002) (citations omitted).

III. DISCUSSION OF CLAIMS

Liberally construed, Plaintiff’s claims are brought pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act. Title VII states that it is unlawful for an employer “to fail or refuse to hire or to discharge any individual, or otherwise to discriminate against any individual with respect to his compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, because of such individual’s race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.”

42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(a)(1).

In order to set forth a prima facie case of discrimination under Title VII, a plaintiff must allege that (1) he belongs to a protected class; (2) he was meeting the legitimate expectations of his employer; (3) he suffered an adverse employment action; and (4) circumstances exist that give rise to an inference of discrimination. Wheeler v. Aventis Pharm., 360 F.3d 853, 857 (8th Cir. 2004) (abrogated on other grounds by Torgerson v. City of Rochester, 643 F.3d 1031 (8th Cir. 2011)). Additionally, prior to filing a suit in federal court under Title VII, a plaintiff is required to exhaust his administrative remedies by first seeking relief through the EEOC or the Nebraska Equal Opportunity Commission (“NEOC”). The EEOC/NEOC will then investigate the charge and determine whether to file suit on behalf of the charging party or make a determination of no reasonable cause. If the EEOC/NEOC determines that there is no reasonable cause, the agency will then issue the charging party a right-to-sue notice. 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(b); see also Hanenburg v. Principal Mut. Life Ins. Co., 118 F.3d 570, 573 (8th Cir. 1997). The charging party has 90 days from the receipt of the right-to-sue notice to file a civil complaint based on his charge. 42 U.S.C.A. § 2000e-5(f)(1). The civil complaint may only encompass issues that are reasonably related to the substance of charges timely brought before the EEOC/NEOC. Williams v. Little Rock Mun. Water Works, 21 F.3d 218, 222 (8th Cir. 1994).

Here, Plaintiff does not allege that he is a member of a protected class, or that he was meeting the legitimate expectations of his employer, or that he suffered an adverse employment action. As such, Plaintiff has failed to set forth a prima facie case of discrimination under Title VII. In addition, Plaintiff has not filed a copy of his EEOC charge or his right-to-sue notice. Thus, the court cannot determine whether Plaintiff’s claim is timely.

On the court’s own motion, the court will permit Plaintiff 30 days in which to (1) amend his Complaint to sufficiently allege a prima facie case of discrimination under Title VII, and (2) file a copy of his EEOC charge and right-to-sue notice with the court.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. Plaintiff shall have until November 12, 2012, to (1) amend his Complaint to sufficiently allege a prima facie case of discrimination under Title VII, and (2) file a copy of his EEOC charge and right-to-sue notice with the court. If Plaintiff fails to file an amended complaint or file a copy of his EEOC documents, Plaintiff's claims against Defendant will be dismissed without further notice for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

2. The Clerk of the court is directed to set a pro se case management deadline in this case using the following text: Check for amended complaint on November 12, 2012.

3. Plaintiff shall keep the court informed of his current address at all times while this case is pending. Failure to do so may result in dismissal without further notice.

4. Plaintiff's Motion to Appoint Counsel (Filing No. 3) is denied. See Davis v. Scott, 94 F.3d 444, 447 \(8th Cir. 1996\) ("Indigent civil litigants do not have a constitutional or statutory right to appointed counsel. . . . The trial court has broad discretion to decide whether both the plaintiff and the court will benefit from the appointment of counsel.") (internal quotation marks omitted).

DATED this 12th day of October, 2012.
